

Workshop

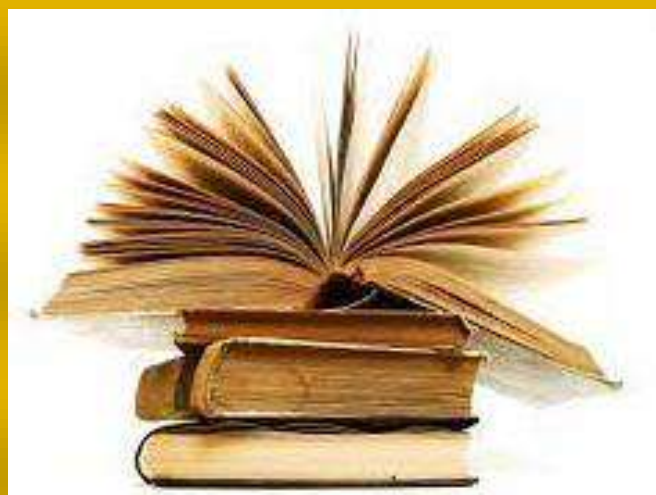

CULTURAL AND SPIRITUAL MOBILIZATION IN THE CONTEXT OF THE EDUCATION POLITICS OF THE GREAT EMPIRES IN THE BALKANS (17TH – BEGINNING OF THE 20TH CENTURY)

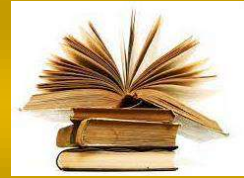

(Skopje/Budapest, 16 November 2021)

Macedonian Academy of Sciences and Arts

Research Center for the Humanities, Institute of History – Hungarian Academy of Sciences

PROGRAMME

11.00 Opening speeches

Antal Molnár

Dragi Ćorgiev

11.30 – 12.50

First session

Moderator: Gábor DEMETER

11.30

Gábor DEMETER

Schools and Churches. Patterns of Influence and Rivalry in the Balkans in the Late 19th Century

11.45

Dragi ĆORGIEV

Cultural Mobilisation and Macedonian Scientific-Literary Society

12.00

Liljana GUŠEVSKA

Documents of the Ohrid Metropolitan on Education, Propaganda and Everyday Life (End of the 19th - Beginning of the 20th Century)

12.15

Biljana RISTOVSKA-JOSIFOVSKA

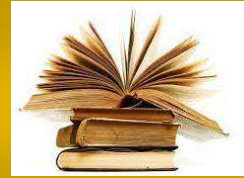

Cultural and Spiritual Mobilization in Macedonia (the Study-Case of Village Lazaropole during the 19th Century)

12.30 – 12.50

Discussion

12.50 – 13.15

Break

13.15 – 14.30

Second session

Moderator: Dragi ĆORGIEV

13.15

Denes SOKCSEVITS

The Croatian Bosnia in the Dualistic Period. Myth, Imperial Integration Attempt or a Failure of National Integration?

13.30

Valentina MIRONSKA-HRISTOVSKA

Cultural Mobilization vs Politics of the Great Empires in the Balkans in the 19th Century

13.45

Laszlo BIRO

Nacionalization and Transnationalization through Education. The Case of Interwar Yugoslavia.

13.45 – 14.00

Discussion

14.00 – 14.30

Presentation of latest projects and publications

Closing conclusions

Antal Molnár

Dragi Ćorgiev

This Workshop is a part of the bilateral project “Cultural and Spiritual Mobilization in the Balkans (17th – Beginning of the 20th Century): Comparative Approach”, within the inter-academic cooperation of Macedonian Academy of Sciences and Arts and the Research Center for Humanities, Institute of History – Hungarian Academy of Sciences.